2. (a) A member who is not a relevant intermediary is entitled to appoint not more than two proxies. Where such member's instrument appointing a proxy(ies) appoints more than one proxy, the proportion of the shareholding concerned to be represented by each proxy shall be specified in the instrument.

(b) A member who is a relevant intermediary is entitled to appoint more than two proxies, but each proxy must be appointed to exercise the rights attached to a different share or shares held by such member. Where such member's instrument appointing a proxy(ies) appoints more than two proxies, the number and class of shares in relation to which each proxy has been appointed shall be specified in the instrument.

"Relevant intermediary" has the meaning ascribed to it in Section 181 of the Companies Act 1967 of Singapore.

3. A proxy need not be a member of the Company.
4. The instrument appointing a proxy(ies), together with the power of attorney or other authority, if any, under which the instrument of proxy is signed or duly certified copy of that power of attorney or other authority (failing previous registration with the Company), must be submitted to the Company in the following manner:

5. Completion and submission of the instrument appointing a proxy(ies) does not preclude a member from attending and voting at the AGM. The appointment of a proxy(ies) for the AGM will be deemed to be revoked if the member attends the AGM in person and in such event, the Company reserves the right to refuse to admit any persons appointed under the relevant instrument appointing a proxy(ies) to attend the AGM.

7. Where an instrument appointing a proxy(ie) is signed on behalf of the appointer by an attorney, the letter or power of attorney or a duly certified copy thereof must (failing previous registration with the Company), if the instrument is submitted by post, be lodged with the instrument or, if the instrument is submitted electronically via email, be emailed with the instrument, failing which the instrument may be treated as invalid.

Members are strongly encouraged to submit completed proxy forms electronically via email.

8. A Depositor shall not be regarded as a member of the Company entitled to attend the AGM and to vote thereat unless his name appears on the Depository Register as at 72 hours before the time appointed for holding the AGM.
9. The Company shall be entitled to reject the instrument appointing a proxy(ies) which is incomplete, improperly completed, illegible or where the true intentions of the appointor are not ascertainable from the instructions of the appointor specified in the instrument (including any related attachment). In addition, in the case of a member whose shares are entered in the Depository Register, the Company may reject any instrument appointing a proxy(ies) if the member, being the appointor, is not shown to have shares entered against his/her/its name in the Depository Register as at 72 hours before the time appointed for holding the AGM, as certified by The Central Depository (Pte) Limited to the Company.
